Question 7.

Are there any additional services you feel that UTASS could offer?

- A coffee morning - (11am to 12noon) once a month to get lonely people into company, minibus pick up if possible? Small charge? Bring a cake ?
- Advice on Stints and Rights & Responsibilities.
- As a smallholder, I would like to be altered to training course relevant to land and livestock management.
- Different training courses - bit more variety.
- Do you put it on newsletters when grants are available? ie: walling, concrete etc?
- I could only think perhaps working with the mart to use the area for other options when there are no animal sales, perhaps general household auctions and or car boot sales
- I invited friends and a young child to 'Jack and the Beans Talk' it was excellent.
- Keep pressing computer skills
- life skills and money management
- More help for older, retired farmers
- More info on grants and funding opportunities
- Overall sustainability of the whole community is likely to become more of a challenge and therefore support areas may need to widen and diversity in future as services disappear. Coordinate campaigns against service reductions.
- Perhaps a financial advisers, legal advisors.
- some classes to attend
- Various work shops on a mixture of skills i.e Art networking. Tourism etc.
- Work towards a secure future for all teesdale farmers (Hill, Upland and Marginal) throughout BREXIT and whatever the future may hold. This is a very uncertain time for farmers.
- Would love an archaeology , geology or history course, but would be interested in other things from from the social side as well as to learn.
